

Keep your hands off our NJ "do not call" laws. Shouldn't you be more worried about the use of our public airwaves for political propagandizing, or the fact that they'll soon all belong to a small handful of corporations ? It's ridiculous.